Our original Tilly Tearoom won the National Food Awards for the best cafe/bistro in Scotland for 2015 and we are through to the final again this year. The Dunblane tearoom is now just open a year and is number 1 on Trip Advisor for Dunblane. It was also mentioned by the Sunday Times recommending our lentil soup. The original Tearoom achieved a Scottish Homebaking award in 2014 and also got through to the final that year and now has had 4 5* certificates for excellence in a row. Both tearooms support their local communities and are supported by their local communities and give a warm welcome to visitors. The beautiful vintage china used for tea is all donated by customers who enjoy seeing their teasetts used and admired by many. A series of children's book Mr Tilly has been inspired by the Tilly Tearoom and there is an illustration of the original tearoom inside every copy.
